T is for ‘to die for location’

Sitting peacefully on Hua Hin beach, Marrakesh Hua Hin Resort & Spa is a classic example of Neo-Moroccan Style creating a modern haven of understated elegance. If you are interested in visiting some of Hua Hin’s most interesting locations, Marrakesh’s convenient location, close to the Hua Hin Night Market and a number of famous beachside restaurants, makes it a venue you can’t afford to overlook.

R is for ‘room to kill’

Marrakesh Hua Hin offers an impressive sanctuary, not least due to its uniquely-designed guestrooms. All 76 rooms come complete with a jacuzzi [or a private pool] and en suite bathrooms amid a delicate blend of intricate arches, deep and rich colours and sultry textures and patterns. The in-room amenities also include a range of unique accessories from the far-away land of Morocco. Guests can choose from the Jacuzzi Suite, the Fountain Pool Suite, the Oceanfront Suite and the Celestial Suite.

A is for ‘absolute must-dos’

The 24-hour infinity pool area is a night venue. Al Janna Beach Bar is one of the must-visit beach bars in Hua Hin. Plus, the mystical retreat at Noora Spa is a great place to discover legendary signature treatments and luxurious massage experiences derive from afar.

V is for ‘vibrant meals’

Al Hamra Restaurant serves seductive range of culinary flavours fused between East and West, including rare Moroccan cuisine. Prepared using freshly selected ingredients, each of the delectable dishes is served in a-la-carte style. You can sample them along the poolside or enjoy private catering in the Neo-Moroccan inspired dining room.

E is for ‘exciting rate’:

Rates start from THB 12,000 - THB 45,000.
